

RULES:

1. The competition will be governed by I.G.F.A. Rules, although multiple strikes are allowed subject to the angler getting to the 2nd rod as soon as possible.
2. A team will consist of a maximum of four anglers who must be nominated before the auction. No changes will be allowed once a boat has been auctioned.
3. Only ONE member of the crew on a professional (charter) boat can be part of the team, i.e. either skipper or crew, but not both.
4. Maximum number of lines permitted in the water at any one time is seven.
5. Maximum breaking strain of lines allowed is 130lb/60kgs. For fly fishermen maximum tippet size is 20lbs/10kgs.
6. All boats must keep at least 500m clear of another boat that is obviously fighting a fish.
7. Each boat MUST record and immediately report the time of their first tagged / released billfish or giant trevally or boated billfish. In the event of a tie, the higher placing will be given to the boat that recorded the first billfish.
8. All billfish hook-ups must be reported by radio as soon as possible.
9. A fish will score as a release when the leader is tipped or held.
10. Photographic evidence, with time and date visible, of each fish tagged or released must be presented to the judges at the weigh in.
11. A representative of each team must report to the weighmaster/scorer immediately after coming ashore. Nil returns must also be reported. The weigh-in point is MSFC.
12. The penalty for lateness will be disqualification on that day. A boat late as a result of a known search & rescue mission, which would otherwise have been on time, will be regarded as on time. Late rescued boats will be disqualified.
13. In the event that a fish is presented to the weigh- master as a legitimate catch, and it is subsequently proven by the judges that it has not complied with IGFA Rules, the team, boat and crew will be disqualified from the whole competition.
14. Protests must be made in writing and lodged with the judges within 30 minutes of the reporting time to the weighmaster on the day concerned, accompanied by a deposit of Ksh.1,000/- .The deposit will only be refunded if the protest is upheld. The judges' decision will be final.
15. Tag/Release cards MUST be presented to the scorer at the weigh in.
